

Charity Wallet

Software Engineering Project

Made by: Darshan Sanghavi 202101150

Use Case for Updating a Profile

Use Case name:

Updating User Profile.

Identifier:

Unique Identifier for each user.

Precondition:

1. The users must be logged into their account to access the update profile feature.

Main Flow:

1. The system will display user's current profile information.
2. The user can now change the information that they want to update in the respective field.
3. After making necessary changes, Users have to press an Update button which allow the system to register the updates made by users.
4. The system will save the updates to database of the server and prompt a message on page indicating updates are successfully executed.

Postcondition:

1. Updates are successfully made in database of system with user's updated profile information.

Alternate Flow:

1. If the user, no longer wants to update the profile, they can cancel updating process by pressing Cancel button which appear in conformation box after user presses Update button.
2. If the user is facing any technical issues related to updating the profile information, then they might contact the website's support team.

Sequence Diagrams

Sequence diagram for updating a profile

